CENSUS Mar. 30, 1808

James and Phoebe Henricks
(names only)

CENSUS 1816

Phoebe Henricks      males over 16 - 0
                             "      under 16 - 1
                             females over 16 - 1 (self)

As James Henricks, husband of Phoebe, does not appear in this year's census, but he did in 1808, it must be presumed that he died between those dates.

Phoebe Henricks died in 1848, aged 85 years.

In the book "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", it states that James Henricks fought for the British and the sons drew United Empire Loyalist lands. The following petition of James Henricks does not indicate he was applying for land as an U.E.L., but as a settler. Accordingly, in his application, he intended to move his family to Canada, in 1799, which probably he did.

The information herein shows that James Hendricks did not die shortly after the Revolutionary War but came to Canada with his wife Phoebe and their four sons and with a daughter Sarah, who later married Richard Hennessey. She was born 1786.

To His Honor Peter Russell Esquire, President
Administring the Government of the Province of Upper Canada etc.

(In Council)

The Petition of James Hendrick
humbly sheweth

That your petitioner has come into this province with intent to reside and settle therein as a farmer and millwright.

That your petitioner is in easy circumstances, and in a capacity to improve land and stock a farm and has a wife and large family who are to remove into this province by the begining or middle of March next.

THE HENRICKS FAMILY

In the book "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" is the following - James Henricks or "Henrick", as the name was formerly written and as it is still written by some of his descendants, was born in County Kildare, Ireland. He and his wife were both of Scotch descent, their parents having emigrated to Ireland from Scotland. They came to the United States prior to the Revolutionary War and settled in New Jersey. During this war James Henrick is said to have taken part on the Royal side, being a member of the 2nd Battalion, King's Royal Regiment, and only lived a short time after its close. His widow, Phoebe Henricks, with her four sons, Jacob, James, Isaac and Daniel, then emigrated to Canada. The sons drew United Empire Loyalist land, and with the exception of Jacob, settled and remained in the vicinity of Carrying Place.

The writer and geneologist of James Henricks, after many years of research takes exception to some of the claims above. While the maiden name of Phoebe Henricks is not given, it was made known to the writer by an old grand-daughter of Phoebe's that her maiden name was Drake and she was born in New Jersey. In the old census rolls of Township of Murray, County of Northumberland, Ontario, it showed the following data.

MURRAY TOWNSHIP CENSUS

THE HENNESSEY FAMILY

The Hennessey Family has been identified in the Township of Murray, Northumberland County, Ontario and in the Township of Ameliasburg, Prince Edward County, Ontario for over one hundred and fifty years.

From Township Papers, Crown Lands.

Certificate from Land Board, District of Mecklenburg, granting Richard Henesy 200 acres of land, June 30, 1790. Certificate from Alexander Aitken, Acting Surveyor for the District of Mecklenburg, assigning Richard Hennessey Lot 31, Con. 5, Sidney Township, December 21, 1790, 200 acres.

#280 States Richard a brother of James Henesy.

Certificate from Alexander Aitken, D'y. P. S'y'r. for District of Mecklenburg, Kingston, assigning to James Hennesy Lot 32, Con. 5, Township of Sidney, December 21, 1790, 200 acres.

These brothers drew 200 acres adjoining each other. There is no record that they settled here, but James settled in Ameliasburg Township, whereas Richard settled in the Township of Murray, Northumberland County, who is the subject of this article.

Before Richard Hennessey came to Upper Canada, he had owned a farm at Manchester, Vt. He is on the U.S. Census of Vermont for 1790.

In Manchestertown, Vermont, Census of 1790

Richard Henise, Males over 16 years	2
" under " "	1
Females including heads of family	3.

Before he settled in Vermont, it is believed that he came from the South, viz. New Hanover County, North Carolina. If so, he was possibly the Richard Henesy who married Sarah Sloan, daughter of Allan Sloan of New Hanover Co., N.C., who left a will in 1768 in which he named his daughter Sarah Henesy and his son-in-law Richard Henesy.

In Black Water District, he was appointed Constable in March and June 1765. Some time after he must have removed from North Carolina to Vermont.

The Township of Murray had a census, 1804. Therein is listed - males over 60 years of age Richard Henesy. Nothing now. Such being the case Richard Henesy was born previous to 1744.

Richard Henesy's brother James Henesy married Christina Simmons, daughter of Henry Simmons, U.E.L., who had two sons baptized and recorded, viz.

James, son of James & Christina Gennesy, Ameliasburg	March 2, 1796.
William, baptized	Jan. 8, 1798.

These baptisms show that James Hennesy was residing in Ameliasburg Township, Prince Edward County, as early as 1796.

Census Township of Murray
Year 1806

Richard Henesy -	age 28 yr.,	therefore born	1778
Wife	age 20 yr.	"	" 1785-6
Betsy	age 2 yr.	"	" 1804.

In this census Richard Henesy Sr's name does not appear. But a Henesy name does appear and is as follows -

David Henesy	age 25 yr.,	therefore born	1781
Wife	age 23 yr.,	"	" 1783.

Are Richard Henesy and David Henesy, brothers, one may ask. The answer is, we do not know. David Henesy's name does not appear again in the Murray Census. He could have been the brother of Richard and as he does not appear again on the Murray Census rolls he could have removed elsewhere.

Richard Hennesy Jr. married Sarah Henricks, daughter of James and Phoebe (Drake) Henricks. Was told that Phoebe (Drake) Henricks was a daughter of Edmund Drake of New Jersey.

James & Phoebe Henricks removed from New Jersey after the Revolutionary War 1798 & 1799 and settled in the Township of Murray. Their names appear several times in the Murray Census. James died between the years 1808 and 1816. Why? because his name appears on the Census year of 1808 and not in the Census year of 1816; but phoebe's name does. Phoebe died 1848, aged 85 years.

Richard Henesy's name doesn't appear again on the Murray Census until the

Richard Henesy - Males over 16 years - 1
                   "      under "      "      - 2
                   Females over 16 "      - 1

From this it appears that their daughter Betsy mentioned in the Census of 1806 must have died and no children to record again (from 1804 to 1812). Son Daniel was born 1812, and the 2nd son above possibly William, born 1813/14.
